Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Bronson Alan Blow, son of Brad and Jean Blow, will graduate from the Southeast Technical Institute in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on May 14, 2004, amidst the fanfare and celebration of family and friends; and,

Whereas, Bronson's graduation is a fitting and proper culmination of many years of hard work and dedication both inside and outside the classroom; and,

Whereas, Bronson's achievements are an inspiration to all young people in South Dakota who recognize that learning and the acquisition of knowledge are not a product but a process that stays with us all during our lives; and,

Whereas, South Dakota's young people are our state's best investment in the future and our greatest hope for prosperity; and,

Whereas, Bronson's stalwart work ethic and powerful drive to succeed are preparation for a future filled with awesome challenges and unbounded opportunities:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 14, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I personally join Bronson's family, friends, and classmates in recognizing Bronson's accomplishments of the past and his promise for the future.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
